EXPERIENCE

By George V. Hobart

And Fancy working side by side with Truth
Said, "Help me set this story down of Youth!
Of Youth with Springtime ever in his heart,
And scenes with Joy where Sorrow plays no part!"
And Truth said, "No; we'll write of one who failed,
Whose barque o'er drear and stormy seas has sailed.
We'll write of Things That Are and must abide
Till Good and Evil perish side by side.
Some weary heart out where Life's breakers roar
May see our feeble light and reach the shore!"
Then Fancy said with sadness in her tone,
"You write it, Truth!" and Truth wrote on—alone.
